

we should have the right to the no call list. Seniors are being scammed over the phone, and having trouble getting to the phone at times just to hear some sales pitch. If we want to do business with previous businesses, we can contact them. Also fed up with calls late into the evening or during dinner time. I will give my number to whom I want to have it. My phone is not free, therefore, they should not have the freedom to harass and annoy me.
